Evaluation of Individual Contributions to Group Work

Assume that you have $100 to pay the group members who have participated in your Assignments 2-4 term project. On the basis of each member's overall contribution over the entire semester, please allocate this money among the members. You should consider quality of ideas, time invested, group participation, personal effort, commitment, and "going beyond the call of duty" in this allocation. Make sure to rate your own contribution as well.
